Enactment Internal Security Act of 1950 eliminates certain procedures PAPERCLIP program and other national interest immigration cases. Individuals who are or have been members of any totalitarian parties or their affiliates or the military forces of any totalitarian State are inadmissible to United States under the law. Effective immediately as an interim procedure, all individuals shipped under PAPERCLIP and all inadmissible individuals in other national interest cases will be processed to enter United States with visitors visas, special prior authority for admittance with visitors visas being obtained by this agency from Attorney General in each case. This authority will be communicated to Visa Division State Department and by them to appropriate United States Consul. No military custody required in United States however shipments will be escorted as heretofore. Initial period in United States with visitors visa is 6 months which can be extended for successive 6 months periods on recommendations of using agency or industrial employer. One H-20G Security Report in triplicate required for each family group before Attorney General will act on JIOA recommendation for admittance. This new procedure permits dependents to accompany specialist if desired by specialist and will avoid probable future difficulties if not impossibility in obtaining similar visitors visas for dependents if coming at later date. Department of Army is studying problem of expense money for dependents travel. Detailed information following by mail. Request your comments on any problems immediately envisaged.
